GEOPATH ID: 30640473

Corner of 6th & New York Ave,
NW, Washington, DC 20001

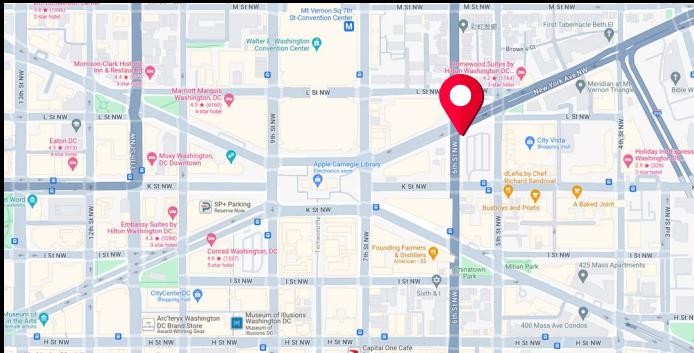

At the true center city unit. It sits on one of the busiest intersections in the city, outside the convention center and, also is between MT Vernon Square and Chinatown. It's a dual read to reach Capitol Hill traffic, Chinatown Verizon Center traffic and the millions of visitors that go to the convention center annually. It's an entry point from the Northeast and an exit point from the west.
